IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA OPENS SEASON

SAN DIEGO, Calif.-----The University Orchestra of the University of San Diego opens a new season, announced Henry Kolar, conductor.

Community participation by amateur musicians is invited, Kolar said. The orchestra may also be taken for credit if students enroll by September 19.

The first rehearsal will be held Thursday, September 18, at 7:00 p.m. in the USD College for Women Rose Room. The orchestra will meet Thursday evenings thereafter.

Kolar is an assistant professor of music at University of San Diego and former concertmaster of the San Diego Symphony. He also has been director of the Youth Symphony.

He was on leave of absence last year to work on his doctorate of music at the University of Colorado College of Music. He teaches chamber music as well as orchestra at the University of San Diego.
